GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS LAMBETH TO WINSTON-SALEM STATE UNIVERSITY BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Thomas W. Lambeth of Winston-Salem to the Winston-Salem State University Board of Trustees.

Lambeth is a senior fellow at the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. He is chairman of the board for the N.C. Rural Center and the Center for Teaching Quality. Lambeth is also a member of the N.C. Humanities Council. He received the Action for Children Lifetime Achievement Award in 2007 and the N.C. Award for Public Service in 2005. Lambeth received a Bachelor's degree in history from UNC at Chapel Hill.

The board promotes the sound development of the institution within the functions prescribed for it, helping it to serve the state in a way that will compliment the activities of the institution and aiding it to perform at a high level of excellence in every area of endeavor. The board has 13 members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members. The Board of Governors appoints eight members. The student body president also serves on the board.
